

Public Relations and Media Centre

July 19, 2023

In response to video clips and news items circulating on social media about flash floods hitting IUST, we clarify that heavy rains were experienced in south Kashmir, including IUST campus in the morning today. Due to our location in the foothills of Wastoorvan mountain, water overflowed the drainage. However, no damage to property occurred, and university operations and functioning are normal.

Issued by PR&MC, IUST