

December 5, 2025

CIR Organises Orientation Program on Civil Services Preparation

Awantipora 04 December: The Centre for International Relations (CIR), Islamic University of Science and Technology (IUST), organised an orientation programme under the CIR Coaching Academy titled “How to Crack Civil Services: A Practical Roadmap.” The session was delivered by Mr. Mir Mushtaq Qadir, a seasoned civil services mentor with over two decades of experience in guiding aspirants.

The programme is part of the CIR Coaching Academy’s ongoing lecture series designed to support students preparing for civil services examinations, and it witnessed active participation from faculty members, scholars, and students.

Addressing the participants, Prof. Abdul Wahid Makhdhoomi, Registrar IUST, emphasised the importance of consistent hard work and strategic planning for success in civil services. Dr. G. N. Itoo, Director, Centre for Good Governance and Policy Analysis, highlighted the significance of effectively utilising available resources, while Dr. Syed Jaleel Hussain, Head CIR, outlined the objectives of the initiative and the broader vision of the centre in strengthening civil services coaching at the university

Issued by PR&MC, IUST