

Future Plans:

- Moving forward, the Center would like to carry out in –depth study and research on the west Himalayan areas focusing upon traditional sociocultural heritage, trade, cultural relations and contemporary social realities and issues in the West Himalayan areas.
- Integrated B.A M.A Programme in Tribe and Heritage Studies
- Establishment of Tribal Chair

Challenges and Opportunities;

- Funding: Securing sustainable funding will be crucial for the Centre to achieve its goals.
- Accessibility; The remote location of the West Himalayan region can pose challenges for research and outreach activities.
- Community participation: Ensuring the achieve involvement of local communities in the Centers initiatives is essential for its success.

Overall, the Rinchen Shah Centre for West Himalayan Cultures has the potential to make a significant contribution to the preservation, understanding and promotion of the regions rich cultural heritage. By embracing innovation, fostering collaboration and prioritizing community engagement, the Centre can achieve its vision of becoming a leading institution in the field of Himalayan studies
